"OIL SYNDICATE" HOLDS MEETING

The first general meeting of the "Carbon Oil Syndicate" since its formation last fall, was held in the Elks hall on Monday night, when Mr. McCannell and Mr. Keyes, and Mr. W. H. Stott, of the city of Calgary, Alta., were out for the occasion. J. A. MacDonald was elected chairman of the meeting and S. F. Torrance secretary. A motion was carried which unanimously elected Jos. J. Greenan as solicitor for the Syndicate and his first and present duty will be to secure a charter for the company as soon as possible. Mr. McCannell outlined the work of the Syndicate so far, from the time that they were first out here to the present and a financial report of the syndicate and its operations was also given. Mr. Keyes also spoke on the great possibility of oil, being confident in the structure, which has for years been known to be gas producing, but which has never been thoroughly tested out for oil.

Five Trustees, Messrs. D. A. McCannell, Colin McPherson, S. F. Torrance, S. N. Wright and J. A. MacDonald, were elected for the purpose of looking after the interests of the syndicate until the Charter is procured.

A committee of two, Dr. G. L. McFarlane and W. G. Shell was elected to act as trustees for the stock which would eventually be held in trust for the company.

There was little to be done at this meeting until the Government charter was obtained for a stock company, but as soon as this has been completed another meeting will be called and more active work will then be commenced as a company instead as a syndicate, as is now the case.

Work Together For Prosperity

As a direct result of the partial crop failure experienced by the three prairie provinces last year, and the disastrous "break" in the stock markets which, although long predicted as inevitable, nevertheless caught thousands of people unawares and resulted in enormous losses to many, there developed a feeling of depression and uneasiness throughout Canada and the United States.

Coming in a year, during the first nine or ten months of which employment in Canada reached a higher peak than ever before in the history of the Dominion, with greater industrial activity, more development work done, and larger building programmes carried out, the country witnessed the paradox of a greater degree of unemployment when winter set in. Although seasonal, and therefore temporary in character, this situation added to the prevailing depression.

Finally, the world's wheat situation became the cause of deep anxiety and concern in Canada because of the fact that this Dominion is now the chief exporter of wheat among the countries of the world. Canada was not the only country which produced an abnormally large wheat crop in 1928, and when the Argentine crop was thrown on the market,—it has to be marketed and sold as soon as it is harvested,—a condition existed which necessitated either the holding of the Canadian crop, or selling it in competition with the Argentine at a price which would have yielded less than the actual cost of production. Wisely, the Wheat Pool and other Canadian exporters, supported by the banks, withheld their wheat from export unless, and until, a fair price was obtainable. As a result transportation interests suffered for the time being, export trade declined, and some uneasiness developed because of the unprecedented situation.

For a time the croakers, pessimists and preachers of blue ruin had their innings. And the more they talked, and bemoaned, the larger became the number of people inclined to shake their heads. Nevertheless, the economics of the situation were substantially sound. It was largely a "state of mind," a mental depression which afflicted many people.

If any one is inclined to challenge this statement, let him examine the situation more closely.

For example, the first day's showing of the new 1930 model by a well known manufacturer of automobiles in Canada and the United States brought in $20,000,000 in orders.

Despite the degree of unemployment existing in Canada, it is less than in any other country, and the actual number of those employed is greater than in any previous year.

The Canadian National Railways have placed, or shortly will place, orders for new equipment and embark on a programme of extensions, involving larger expenditures than in past years.

The C.P.R. has just announced a programme of extensions, betterments, and purchase of new equipment for 1930 involving the expenditure of $50,000,000.

All Western Governments are planning highway construction programmes in excess of anything attempted in any one year in the past.

Building programmes in the larger cities are in course of preparation which will equal, if not surpass, the high records of 1923, which outdistanced all former years.

There has not been a bank failure in Canada, all our large insurance and financial companies are sound, all our large industrial concerns are busy and prosperous, our mineral production increases in volume and value every year, the peace of the world never appeared more assured than at present.

Then what is there to worry about? Nothing. All the people have to do is to throw off their mental depression, and the fog will be lifted and dissipated.

Governments and Big Business are doing their share not only to keep the country busy and prosperous, but to speed up business and increase prosperity. It remains for the individual man and woman to do likewise. If each individual citizen does his or her share by tackling the particular piece of work close to their hands, 1930 will prove one of Canada's banner years.

Let every workman take a little keener interest in his job, throw a bit more energy into it, strive to perform somewhat better work, in a word, give the best possible value in work for the wages received, and the effect will be startling.

Let the farmer tackle his problem with renewed energy, and confidence will come. Every farm method improved, every vigorous onslaught on noxious weeds, every cow, pig or hen added to the farm, every little vegetable garden planted, will make for profit, contentment and progress.

New energy and enterprise by every merchant, the adoption of new and better methods, scrapping the old and obsolete and introducing something new and better, will make for progress, greater turn-overs, larger profits.

Let everybody work together for prosperity in 1930, and prosperity will be assured.

"Loud Speaker" Is Name Of Bootleg Sheet, Published Secretly In Rome

The latest thing in Rome is a bootleg newspaper. It is a 16-page tabloid sheet published in secret and distributed through the dark alleys of the Holy City by underground methods. It is anonymous and its humorous name is "Loud Speaker." It is filled with attacks upon Mussolini and the fascist government, giving news and alleged news which no licensed press would dare print. The Romans are amused, the police puzzled. The dictator's fury can be imagined.

WHY SUFFER FROM ANAEMIA

When Health and Strength Can Be Obtained Through Purifying the Blood

Anaemia is the medical term for thin, watery blood. The sufferer loses strength; becomes pale; is seized with shortness of breath and heart palpitation after the slightest exertion. The least work becomes a burden and life does not seem worth living. Anaemia is not a disease that can be neglected. Unless checked it will steadily grow worse. What is needed to combat this trouble is a good blood tonic, one that will go right to the root of the trouble and drive all impurities from the system. Such a tonic is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—that famous blood-builder and strength restorer.

Mrs. John Bain, Avenue Road, Toronto, Ont., for a number of years was in an anaemic condition and on finding relief through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, she wrote as follows:—"For upwards of seven years I suffered from an anaemic condition. I was so pale my friends feared consumption. A year ago I was so ill I spent five months in the hospital. I had a terrible numbness in my hands and pains in my feet and legs. I was seized with dizzy spells and my heart would palpitate violently. I was so weak they gave me two blood transfusions, but even these did not help me. Eventually I came home from the hospital discouraged. I could do nothing for myself—life was a burden. A friend who came to see me strongly advised me to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As I was anxious to try anything that might help me I procured a supply and began taking them. It was some time before I noticed any change in my condition, but gradually I could see a slight improvement. My color became better; my sleep sounder; my appetite more keen and the numbness in my hands and limbs gradually left me. I persisted in the use of the Pills and they made me a well woman again. I am now able to do my own work and shopping and have gained over eighteen pounds in weight. I feel perfectly safe in recommending these Pills to other sufferers."

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for Mrs. Bain they will do for other anaemic men and women. They act directly on the blood and in this way banish such troubles as anaemia, heart palpitation, nervousness and general debility. They are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Children suffering from worms soon show the symptoms, and any mother can detect the presence of these parasites by the writhings and fretting of the child. Until expelled and the system cleared of them, the child cannot regain its health. Miller's Worm Powders are prompt and efficient, not only for the eradication of worms, but also as a toner up for children that are run down in consequence.

Get Salary Boost

Nearly 1,000 Civil Servants Are To Get Wage Increase

Close to one thousand employees of the Dominion Government's income tax branch are gladdened by announcement of an increase in salary of $120 a year, effective from April 1, when the new fiscal year will begin. This applies to the service from Halifax to Vancouver, or at least to those who have not already received such an advance.

Adding Insult To Injury

The gigantic truck had collided with a minute private car.

"You fool!" shouted the owner of the latter, jumping out and shaking his fist at the truck driver. "Do you mean to tell me that you couldn't see me coming on a straight road like this?"

The other smiled. "I'm sorry," he said. "It couldn't be helped. You see, I thought your car was a fly on my windshield."

Calgary Aviator Succeeds In Two-Way Hop Across Rockies' Highest Peaks

Back from a daring flight from Calgary to Vancouver across the highest peaks of the Canadian Rockies, Flying Officer W. L. Rutledge, Calgary aviator, brought his Curtis-Robin monoplane to earth at the municipal airport. He was accompanied by Percy J. K. Payne, secretary-treasurer of Rutledge Air Service, Limited.

The flier quashed the belief that a forced landing in the mountains meant death. There were many places where a forced landing could be made and many others where landing fields could be built.

No longer need the mountains be barriers in the development of aviation between the prairies and coast cities, he said. An air mail and passenger service could be operated, he said, and the trip between the two cities made in four hours.

The time of the flight from Merritt, B.C., where the aviators were delayed for a few days because of bad weather, was three hours and five minutes, covering slightly over 300 miles.

For Frost Bites and Chills. Chills come from undue exposure to slush and cold, and frost-bite from the icy winds of winter. The action of the oil is prompt and its application is extremely simple.

Secret Died With Him

Italian Chemist Refused To Tell Of Valuable Preparation

Although in dire straits and hardly able to pay for a meal a day, Francesco Rocchi, the noted Italian artist-chemist, always refused to divulge his secret chemical preparation to cure "cancer-of-bronze," a mysterious disease which eats bronze. The professor had also discovered a cure that arrested the decay of old paintings. Although he was repeatedly offered huge sums of money for his invention, he consistently refused to divulge them. A few days ago he died of starvation.

WHY NOT U.S. HONEY?

During the past several weeks, Alberta weekly newspapers have been approached by the Alberta Development Board for their support in a campaign designed to influence consumers in favor of "made in Alberta" products. The campaign is a worthy one, and the Alberta Development Board is a live organization. But we would call that organization's attention to the inconsistency displayed by one of Alberta's leading producers.

While at breakfast this morning we reached for the honey jar. It was a very attractive container and we confess a liking for honey—good honey; the kind that is produced in Alberta by the Riedell people. And that little jar of honey was purchased in preference to other brands, because it was produced in Alberta.

But, imagine one's chagrin when a glance at the label disclosed the fact that it was "printed in U.S.A." There are a hundred printing plants in Alberta which might have produced that label and improved upon its design, but the producer who is catering to the Alberta consumer steps across the international border and buys a foreign label to advertise his product, which he hopes to sell in the home market.

Straws point which way the wind blows and this little incident is but a sample of the inconsistency of many Canadian manufacturers when it comes to purchasing labels, wrappers and containers. And now, can we be criticized if we are converted to the use of United States honey?—Hanna Herald.

VALENTINES TO THE SICK

In many homes the evening hours recently have been spent in a busy fashion by Junior Red Cross children in the making of Valentines which have been mailed to the little sick patients in the Junior Red Cross Hospitals of Calgary and Edmonton.

The little bright red hearts of the Valentines and the greetings that accompanied them—often quite an artistic performance,—sometimes quite original—gladdened the hearts of the ones who are bedfast in the wards.

The Matron distributed these on Valentines Day and the lonely child who has not many friends, felt a warmth of pleasurable excitement at the thought that another child somewhere in the country had been thinking about him.

By these seasonable offerings of affection, the members of Junior Red Cross can interpret their pledge of "Thinking of others less fortunate than themselves."

"I certainly was glad to see you at the prayer meeting last night," said the new minister.

"Gosh," said Gashouse Wille, "so that's where I was."

A well-to-do colored man suffered a serious illness and showed no signs of improvement under treatment by a physician of his own race. So, presently he dismissed this doctor and summoned a white man. The new physician made a careful examination of the patient and then asked: "Did that other doctor take your temperature?" The sick man shook his head doubtfully: "I dunno, suh," he declared, "I sartinly dunno. All I've missed so far is my watch."

The woman confessed to her crony: "I'm growing old and I know it. Nowadays, the policeman never takes me by the arm when he escorts me thru the traffic."

"SMILIN' GUNS" A DANDY FILM

By far the best and most entertaining Western Universal has turned out in some time is "Smilin' Guns," starring Hoot Gibson, which will be shown at the Carbon Theatre on Friday and Saturday of this week. It presents the popular and versatile star in a new and entirely pleasing role.

While the energetic Hoot has injected a certain amount of comedy in previous pictures, the dominant note in Gibson Westerns has been Hoot's dare devil riding and death-defying feats. But in "Smilin' Guns," Hoot gives his audience, along with the usual amount of good riding and thrills, some of the best comedy anyone could desire.

Portraying a devil-may-care but rather unkempt cowboy, Hoot affords many laughs by his inimitable performance. But it is not until he decides to become a polished gentleman that the real laughs commence. There are spots in "Smilin' Guns" during which Hoot rises to versatile heights as a comedian.

Odest Steamship Company

The Cunard Line Is Celebrating Its 90th Anniversary Of Service

What seasoned mariners consider to be a remarkable feat was the Cunarder "Mauretania's" recent fast mid-winter crossing between New York and England, which was accomplished in 4 days, 23 hours and 3 minutes, at an average speed of 25.42 knots. This time figured from New York to Eddystone lighthouse, Plymouth, is only a few hours longer than the "Mauretania's" best time of 4 days, 17 hours and 50 minutes, at an average speed of 27.22 knots registered between the same points, last August. In view of the severe gales that have been experienced recently, which have made even express liners between 2 and 3 days late, this fast crossing will probably stand as the most outstanding on the high seas this winter.

It is interesting to note that this year the Cunard Line celebrates its 90th anniversary, which recalls to mind the exploits of that great Canadian, Samuel Cunard, founder of the Cunard Line, the oldest steamship company operating on the trans-Atlantic route. Born at Halifax in 1787, of humble United Empire Loyalist stock, he directed his business abilities at an early age towards shipping. Commencing by buying and selling captured enemy prizes and their cargoes, and rapidly extending his business, he was, at the age of 27 engaged in the forwarding of mail to Newfoundland. Shortly afterwards he was distributor of Her Majesty's mails in Canada, the United States, Newfoundland and Bermuda, which he transported in his fleet of 10-gun brigs.

1831 he became interested in the advent of steam shipping, heading the list of subscribers who built the "Royal William," the first vessel to cross the Atlantic under her own steam. Fired with the possibilities of the future of steam propulsion, he conceived the idea of applying this new method of locomotion to his own ships. Samuel Cunard, who was at that time well known on both sides of the Atlantic as a genius of business, and a man whose 40 ships provided the Maritimes with one of the chief sources of their activities, left for England in 1838, in response to a missive received from the lord commissioners of the admiralty, inviting him to submit tenders for the conveyance of Her Majesty's mails to the North American continent.

After experiencing some little difficulty in raising sufficient capital to embark on his ambitious enterprise, he was finally awarded the contract, and gave orders for the construction of four paddle-wheel steamers of the following dimensions: 1154 gross tons, length 207 feet, breadth 34 feet 2 inches, depth 24 feet 4 inches, with a horse power of 740, and a speed of 8.5 knots. These vessels were known as the "Britannia," "Acadia," "Columbia," and were to be delivered in 1840 to carry on the mail contract awarded to Cunard's company, known at that time as the British and North American Royal Mail Steam Packet Company. Perhaps the best known and most easily remembered of these vessels was the famous old "Britannia," which was the first Cunarder to cross the Atlantic under her own steam.

One of the proudest moments in Cunard's life was on July 4th, 1840, when he set sail from Liverpool on board the "Britannia" on its inaugural run for Halifax and Boston, the forerunner of the present great fleet of Cunarders, totalling today nearly a million tons of shipping. After battling with the hazards of the Atlantic for 13 days, he triumphantly steamed into Halifax harbour on the morning of the 17th, finally arriving in Boston a few hours later, where he was acclaimed by the populace for his outstanding achievement, receiving no less than nearly 2,000 dinner invitations during the first day of his arrival in Boston.

Samuel Cunard lived to see his great conception take practical form, and was knighted by the British Government for services rendered during the Crimean War. He died in 1865 at the age of 78, when his son Edward followed in his footsteps.

Entering upon its 90th anniversary of steady progress in a life of service to the public, the present-day Cunard Line with its palatial "Berengaria," stately "Aquitania," and speedy "Mauretania," aptly described as the greyhound of the Atlantic; together with a large fleet of consort vessels, maintain a regular service between the principal ports of Great Britain and the North American continent.

Officials of the company commented recently on the satisfactory progress made during the past year when many thousands of passengers were conveyed to and from Europe with regularity and safety by the many services of the Cunard Line and its associated companies, which showed a big increase over numbers carried during the preceding years. It is with a confidence begotten of long years of experience, that the oldest steamship company operating on the Atlantic services, looks forward to an even greater era of progress in the years to come.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FEBRUARY 23

THE TWELVE SENT FORTH

Golden Text: "The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth laborers into His harvest."—Matthew 9:37, 38.

Lesson: Matthew 9:35 to 11:1.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 52:7-12.

Explanations and Comments

The Twelve Sent On a Mission Tour, 10:1—Jesus had already chosen His twelve disciples, and now He sent them out two by two, as Mark tells us, that they might gain training in His work, for He would work through them. He gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness. They were "illiterate Galilean peasants" for the most part, but they were the best men He could get.

The Names Of the Twelve, 10:2-4.—There are four complete lists of the apostles: Matthew 10:2-4; Mark 3:16-19; Luke 6:14-16; and Acts 1:13. In all the lists they are arranged in four groups. The first of the first group is always Peter; that of the second, Philip; that of the third, James; and that of the fourth, Alphaeus. The order of the remaining three in each group varies in the different lists, save that Judas Iscariot is always the last one mentioned.

Simon, who is called Peter (Rock), and Andrew, his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother. We heard about these two pairs of brothers in our second lesson. Peter and Andrew were natives of Bethsaida; and possibly James and John were also.

Philip was a fellow townsman of Andrew and Peter; see John 6:5-14; 12:20, 21; 14:8, 9. Polycrates, Bishop of Ephesus, in the latter part of the second century, refers to Philip as "one of the lights of Asia." Bartholomew (called Nathanael in John 1:45; 21:2), is always coupled with Philip in the lists of the apostles, save in Acts 1:13. We think of him as Jesus portrayed him at his call, as the Israelite in whom was no guile (John 1:47). Of Thomas nothing is recorded in the Synoptic Gospels. The Fourth Gospel records his courage and devotion to his Master (John 11:16), his questions in the Upper Room (John 14:5), and his expressed doubt in regard to the reality of the Risen Lord until fully convinced (John 20:19, 20). Matthew, the publican, the writer of the Gospel we are studying, is called Levi in Luke 5:27, and Levi the son of Alphaeus in Matthew.

James the son of Alphaeus, is called James the less, or rather the Little, in Mark 15:40; probably he was short of stature, and was thus distinguished from the other James, the son of Zebedee. He must not be confounded with James "the Lord's brother," who is a conspicuous figure in the history of The Acts, and to whom the Epistle of James is ascribed. Thaddeus is identified with Judas (son or brother, R.V.), of James (Luke 6:16), and the Judas, not Iscariot, of John 14:22. In Mark 3:18 he is called Lebbaeus. He is more remembered for his names than his deeds, for nothing is recorded of him save his question in John 14:22. Simon the Cananaean, is called Simon Zelotes in Luke. The designation of Cananaean is supposed to refer to his birthplace of Cana; The "Zealot," to his being a member of the party of Zealots, a party conspicuous for their fierce advocacy of the Mosaic ritual, and their abhorrence of foreign rule. And Judas Iscariot who also betrayed Him: "Iscariot" means literally "Man of Kerioth," a village near Hebron. He is the only Judean in the list, the other eleven being men of Galilee. He was the treasurer of the band of apostles (John 12:6; 13:29). He betrayed his Lord, and on the night of the trial hanged himself (Matthew 27:3-5).

Co-Operative Packing Plants

Farmers in Western Canada are becoming more and more favourable to a wider extension of the policy of co-operative marketing. Co-operative packing houses in the cities of Lethbridge, Calgary, and Edmonton, are to be established by the Alberta Livestock Pool. The original idea was for a centralized co-operative plant at Calgary, but this has been abandoned in favor of the three plants serving the southern, central and northern sections of the province.

Needless Pain!

Nowadays, people take Aspirin for many little aches and pains, and as often as they encounter any pain.

Why not? It is a proven antidote for pain. It works!

And Aspirin tablets are absolutely harmless. You have the medical profession's word for that; they do not depress the heart.

So, don't let a cold "run its course." Don't wait for a headache to "wear off." Or regard neuralgia, neuritis, or even rheumatism as something you must endure. Only a physician can cope with the cause of such pain, but you can always turn to an Aspirin tablet for relief.

Aspirin is always available, and it never fails to help. Familiarize yourself with its many uses, and avoid a lot of needless suffering.

NAVAL DELEGATES STRIVE TO REACH SOME AGREEMENT

London, England.—Moving slowly, like a big ship passing through a foggy channel, the naval conference is progressing. The "big five" have now got to the stage where they are putting down the total figures of their naval needs—the round figures in hundreds of thousands of tons of the total naval requirements of their countries.

In full committee of the whole, the delegates discussed the report of the experts; a report which attempts to find a common agreement between the old rival ways of measuring and limiting naval armaments, one by lump tonnage for a whole navy, the other by limits of tonnage for each class of vessel, and the committee decided to forward this report on to the heads of the five delegations.

In its classification plan, the experts' report follows gun power as well as by tonnage of the respective type of ship. Japan agreed. The United States also agreed so far as the main categories are concerned. But the United States did not favor the subdivision between 6-inch gun and 8-inch gun cruisers. France reserved its opinion. Italy preferred the general principle of global—lump tonnage.

The United States also re-asserted her old position against fixing maximum and minimum sizes for cruisers carrying 6-inch guns. The old difference was still there, between the United States' liking for 10,000-ton cruisers carrying 8-inch guns, and the British need for a larger number of smaller cruisers with 6-inch guns.

Such reports of the remainder of the discussion as are available, indicate it was highly technical, with a division of opinion over the clause permitting a transfer of 10 per cent. of the tonnage of one class into another class.

Rt. Hon. A. V. Alexander, first lord of the admiralty, told questioners in the House of Commons that there was no question of Great Britain scrapping any of her latest battleships.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald also told a questioner later that no proposal had been made at the naval conference by any foreign delegate that would entail the scrapping of battleships of the "Queen Elizabeth" or "Royal Sovereign" classes. The premier's reply was:

"The answer to the question is decidedly in the negative."

The questions were prompted chiefly by reports that the United States instead of asking for scrapping of certain British battleships on an age basis would ask that vessels of the "Queen Elizabeth" or "Royal Sovereign" class be scrapped in order to bring the United States and British battle fleets on an equal basis.

In response to other questions the first lord of the admiralty said the number of 50 cruisers as necessary for the British Empire had been arrived at after a full investigation and that this number would meet all requirements for the period of the agreement which it was hoped would result from the London naval conference. The number he added was subject to successful outcome of the conference.

The United States delegation announced officially that no proposal regarding neutralization of the Philippines had come to the attention of the United States representatives.

To Increase Production

Conference To Be Held To Devise Ways Of Speeding Up Production Of Bacon, Butter, Eggs and Cheese

Ottawa.—Invitations went forward today from the Dominion Department of Agriculture to each of the provincial ministers of agriculture, inviting them or their representatives to attend a conference in Ottawa on March 11 and 12. The object of the conference is to devise ways and means of increasing the production of bacon, butter, eggs and cheese. Representatives of co-operative societies and various livestock organizations will also be invited.

The letter which was sent out by J. H. Grisdale, deputy minister of agriculture, points out that the volume of livestock products available for export is steadily decreasing.

It is in order to keep pace with increasing consumption and get hold of export trade that this get-together conference has been arranged.

Customs Clearings At The Pas

Second Only To Winnipeg According To January Figures

The Pas, Man.—Customs clearings in The Pas during January were second only to Winnipeg in the province, according to figures released by C. S. Krempeaux, local officer. The total of $69,789.63 reached a new peak for January, and constituted the second largest figures for that month of any customs port in Manitoba.

The average volume of business passing through his office is about $25,000 a month. The entire work is at present handled by the customs officer and his assistant, E. Gamache.

Efforts are now being made by board of trade officials to secure a federal building which would house both the post office and the customs department.

Bill Given Third Reading

Agreement Ratifying Return Of Resources Passes Manitoba House

Winnipeg.—Record for quick passage was created in the legislature, when the bill ratifying the agreement for transfer of the natural resources from Dominion to provincial control was given third reading.

The most far-reaching piece of legislation before the house, the bill emerged from the commons stage without amendment, and it was but the work of a moment for Hon. W. J. Major's motion of adoption to be carried unanimously.

The agreement with the Dominion Government was signed in Ottawa on December 14, last, and now requires only the sanction of the Federal Parliament to make it operative.

Canadian Press Regrets Publication Of Despatch Regarding Canadian Flour

Toronto.—On behalf of the Canadian Press, its general manager, J. F. B. Livesay, issued the following statement:

"On February 9, the Canadian Press sent out from Toronto a news despatch containing a statement that trucks, wagons and windows of the Lyons restaurants in London, England, displayed placards, 'We do not use Canadian flour.'"

The next day the London manager of the Canadian Press cabled the emphatic denial of Messrs. J. Lyons and Company, Limited, whose head office is in London, and this was at once circulated throughout the daily newspapers of Canada with the request that they publish it with an expression of regret for the original despatch.

"The original despatch was handed to the Canadian Press from a source it considered reliable and was carried in good faith. But the Canadian Press unreservedly accepts the denial of the Lyons Company, and now desires to express its sincere regrets and apology for the wrong unintentionally done to that company."

Flying Clubs Need Money

Amalgamation Would Solve Problem In Canada Opinion Of General MacBrien

Montreal, Que.—Out of 24 flying clubs in Canada today, 18 are in financial difficulties, and must get some more money from other sources if they are to continue. The remaining six, if they paid all their book debts, would also be behind, Major-General J. H. MacBrien, president of the Aviation League, told members of the Montreal Light Aeroplane Club.

In offering a solution to the problem facing this new industry, General MacBrien suggested an amalgamation of all the flying clubs and small operating companies in Canada under the name of the National Flying Services of Canada, Limited, on the basis of a government subsidy.

Berlin.—The cabinet has drafted a bill intended to decrease wheat imports into Germany. It provides that bread, in which an increasing quantity of wheat has been used lately, must be blended with rye to the extent of 90 per cent.

UPHOLDS THE LEGITIMACY OF POOL METHODS

London, England.—What he called a "corrective to so much rot being talked by responsible people about the wheat market," was administered by Hon. Herbert Greenfield, Alberta's agent-general in London, at a luncheon of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce here.

Mr. Greenfield proposed a toast to Anglo-Canadian trade.

Mr. Greenfield formerly was premier of Alberta, active in the Canadian farmers' movement, served on the Canadian council of agriculture, and was for some years vice-president of the United Farmers of Alberta.

After outlining the essential business nature of the Canadian Wheat Pool and the legitimacy of its methods, Mr. Greenfield reminded his hearers that without the protection of the pool, Canadian wheat would be dumped onto the market on the present crop year without a margin of profit, to the tune of a $200,000,000 decrease in the buying power of the Canadian farm.

He had been speaking to a member of the pool recently, Mr. Greenfield continued. He had ascertained indications that the situation was clearing up. But any talk of bad feeling between the British buyer and the Canadian seller was sheer rubbish.

"It just doesn't exist," he said. Mr. Greenfield's solution for the development of imperial trade was to tackle the problem not as a political issue but by letting hard headed and successful business men get together to hammer out their own scheme.

J. M. Gillett, head of the British Government's department of overseas trade, expressed the view that considering the trade balance was continually weighed in favor of Canada, the first essential in such a scheme as Mr. Greenfield proposed would be to increase British exports. He was convinced the ability of Great Britain to supply the world's needs on reasonable terms would be materially improved in the near future and he derived much comfort he said from the projected Canadian transport improvement to bring Britain and Western Canada into closer commercial interests here.

He was referring to the Hudson Bay Railway and outlet.

Winners In Wheat Competitions Distributed Widely Throughout Wheat Growing Area In West

The successes of Western Canadian farmers in international wheat competition, within a period of nineteen years since the institution of the award in 1911, constitute one of the most impressive features in the records of Canadian agriculture. On fifteen occasions, the Dominion's representatives won against all North winning of such competitions is, first and foremost, a tribute to the talent of the exhibitor. But their work has done more than that—it has brought renown to the west, and to the whole Dominion.

And it is a matter of gratification that this notable series of successes has not been monopolized within any

America with exhibits of hard red spring wheat and in addition in two other years they carried off the prize for the best hard red spring wheat, although in the two years just referred to they lost the grand championship to hard red winter wheat by a narrow margin. The work of these master farmers has brought them high personal distinction, for the win-restricted area. As the accompanying map indicates, the locations of the Canadian winners of the highest honours in North American wheat competitions are remarkably well and widely distributed throughout the vast area of wheat-growing territory in the Canadian West. The Prairie Provinces furnish a far-flung habitat for wheat of premier quality.

Shows Development Of West

Last Year's "Small" Crop Would Have Been Bumper Ten Years Ago

"How far the development in Western Canada has proceeded in recent years may be realized by noting the size of the wheat crop (270,000,000 bushels), that we now refer to as a small one. In no year previous to the war was any such production attained, and with the exception of 1915, when crop yields per acre were extraordinarily large, it was not until 1921 that Western Canada produced so large a quantity of wheat," points out Hon. T. A. Crerar in a signed statement.

"For the 10 years ended in 1920, the West's annual production of wheat averaged 214,000,000 bushels but for the four years which ended in 1928, the average production was 425,000,000 bushels. Before 1915, the acreage of lands in Western Canada devoted to wheat did not exceed 11,000,000 acres, but in 1929 it was almost 25,000,000. Including land under crops, summer-fallow and temporary pastures, over 50,000,000 acres are now under cultivation in the West."

May Make Tour Of Europe

The new British airship, R-100, will not be flown to Canada until the spring. Whether the giant vessel will be kept in its hangar in the meantime is doubtful. The suggestion is being put forward that she should make a comprehensive tour of Europe, which would enable her crew to gain further experience in the handling of the great vessel.

An Important Agent

Fanning Mill Is Great Help In Getting Ready For Seeding

It will not be long before most farmers begin to think about getting the seed oats ready before the spring rush starts and there is no more important agent in this preparation than the fanning mill. Yet it is doubtful if any piece of farm machinery gets more abuse in a year than this necessary piece of equipment.

The work of the mill is three-fold—by the air to blow out useless impurities and light grain, by the ridges to carry over large grain of foreign varieties, and by the sieves to grade the grain to size and remove weed seeds. If, through neglect or abuse, the mill is unable to carry out one or more of these functions its usefulness is minimized.

It is a good plan to check over the sieves to make sure that they have not suffered too seriously since last fall or when they were last used, and it is important that any repairs incidental to the fans be attended to. A machine which has some fans missing is reduced in efficiency to the extent as it is lacking in these parts.

One of the most important items to keep in mind while the grain is being run through the mill, is that a rush job is no job, and to get the best results the grain must be fed down from the hopper at a reasonably slow rate of speed.

Grain Crop Production

Canada's Total Yield Of Wheat For 1929 Is Placed At 299,520,000 Bushels

The total yield of wheat in Canada in 1929 is estimated at 299,520,000 bushels, from 25,255,002 acres, according to the annual crop report recently issued by the Canadian Government Bureau of Statistics. This is 267,206,000 bushels less than the yield in 1928. Last year's oats crop totalled 282,838,300 bushels or over 170,000,000 bushels less than the previous year. The 1929 yield of barley was 102,313,300 bushels which was about 34,000,000 bushels below the production in 1928. Of the total yields of these three crops the prairie provinces—Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta—grew 276,664,000 bushels of wheat; 141,620,000 bushels of oats, and 79,787,000 bushels of barley. Reduced production is due to unusual climate conditions in 1929.

Selling College Stock

University Of B.C. Will Offer About Forty Head For Sale

Decision of the British Columbia Government to curtail the expenditure on the agricultural department of the University of British Columbia has caused the University authorities to decide on a sale of purebred Jerseys and Ayrshires on March 5. The exact number to be offered has not yet been fully decided, but it is expected that at least 40 head will be put up. The offering will include the progeny of the imported Ayrshire herd, six bulls and four heifers, all sired by some of the most noted bulls in Scotland. The Jerseys are all of the University's breeding. In addition to the cattle, ten head of purebred Clydesdales of the University's breeding, mostly mares and fillies, will also be offered.

Canada's Wool Production

Ontario was the largest producer of wool last year among the provinces of Canada, with 6,300,000 pounds, followed by Quebec with 5,498,000 pounds; Alberta, 3,054,000; Nova Scotia, 1,584,000; Saskatchewan, 1,192,000; British Columbia, 1,156,000; Manitoba, 1,015,000; New Brunswick, 866,000; Prince Edward Island, 553,000; and Indian Reserves, 16,000.

Young Quebec Goes Exploring

"Ti Bonhomme," (The Little Tad) is away with his sled and he doesn't care where he winds up. He is rehearsing his part in the great Winter Ice Pageant to be held at Quebec this month. Weather means nothing to him, so long as it is cold weather and as for zero, well, the more it zeroes the more he likes it. He is dressed for the part and would not be out of place in the Byrd expedition. At present he is emulating "Jeff," lead dog in the mush team of Arthur Beauvais, and is practising for the International Dog Derby later in February, though he will not likely figure among the entrants. Imagination is however the main thing and doubtless the bracing air of Quebec gives it a zip.

Alberta Fur Production

From July 1st, 1928, to June 30th, 1929, inclusive, the fur production in the Province of Alberta amounted to 1,669,562 pelts, valued at $2,473,191.40. The fur produced during the same period of the previous year was valued at $1,661,691.50. Exports during the period totalled 1,622,693 pelts, valued at $3,871,797.80.

Charmian remembered, too, the first time her grandmother had been persuaded to ride in "that infernal contraption" as she called the car. It had taken much urging on the part of both Charmian and the doctor, and it was not without misgivings that she at last consented to ride to Portland to see an oculist. She returned at supper time, bright-eyed with enthusiasm.

"It's like flying!" she exclaimed. "I felt like a bird, skimming along so fast. Why, when I remembered how long it took your grandfather and me to drive it, once in a dog's age, well, I just can't believe I've been gone, and got back as quickly as this!"

After that she needed no persuading when the doctor stopped to take her on his rounds; but of late years the rheumatism had been worse, and it seemed easier to sit in the shop window and "watch the world go by" as she quaintly put it.

Charmian's reminiscences were interrupted by the sound of the doctor's car, and immediately after Grandma rapped a summons with Great-grandfather Davis's gold-headed cane which she kept near her for that purpose. The girl paused in the kitchen to set the kettle forward, and when she reached the front room Grandma was peering from the window.

"It's Jim Bennett, just gone by in a new car!" she announced eagerly. "He had that Clara Darling with him—the girl who's staying at the Osmonds'. I knew her by the hat. It's bright green—emerald green, I call it. I never saw its like in Wickfield, and no good'll come o' it, mark my words!"

Charmian laughed merrily and said: "It seems to have made an impression upon Jim! He escorted it to the church sociable last evening."

"And you never told me!" Grandma replied reproachfully; and added: "It's his mother's doings."

"That gorgeous hat?" asked Charmian, who enjoyed teasing the old lady on occasions.

"You know well enough what I mean," retorted Grandma. "Jim's a good boy, but he's considerable under his mother's thumb, and she's set her heart on his making a good match. Well, there was a time, when your grandfather was living, that the Davises would have turned up their noses at a Bennett."

"Perhaps that day is not past," replied Charmian, an amused smile lighting her blue eyes because she knew that this irate statement of her grandmother's wasn't exactly true. The Bennetts were as good as anybody.

Grandma looked up at her suspiciously. "You're not telling me," she began, when Charmian laughed and answered the unvoiced question:

"Of course not! I wouldn't hurt his feelings for the world; but I'll confess Grandma, that if Jim should—well—pop the question, I'd suspect that he'd rehearsed the scene beforehand with his mother. There'd be no romance."

Grandma chuckled; then her face sobered.

"But he's a good boy," she repeated. "You might do worse, Charmian, even with Sarah Bennett thrown in."

"And I might do better," responded Charmian, opening a drawer of the highboy and straightening a spool of thread. "I'm planning to marry a million dollars, Grandma, and spend every penny on this old house. Besides, you've forgotten the green hat. It has cut me out."

Grandma snorted and turned to the window.

"Here comes Lizzie Baker," she commented. "I wonder does she ever step outside without an apron. She's coming here. Like as not she wants to borrow something. The borrowing Bakers' is what Father Davis always called them. Good morning, Lizzie," as a portly woman stepped into the hall. "Were you wanting something?"

"Just a pinch o' sody." From beneath her starched white apron Lizzie Baker produced a small tin cup. "I got all set to mix my biscuits," she continued, "and found there wasn't a mite o' sody in the house."

Handing the cup to Charmian she sank down breathless in a convenient rocker. Miss Lizzie was always breathless. "Jim Bennett's went and got a brand new car," she announced importantly. "And according to some—" She lowered her voice, but Charmian, who had started toward the kitchen, came back to say, a glint of fun hiding in her eyes: "And a new girl, Miss Lizzie?"

"Dear me, suz!" exclaimed the caller. "I thought you'd gone. Well, I'll say this, Charmian: That girl ain't a patch on you for looks, if her clothes did come all the way from Boston. That hat now—(Sarah Bennett was braggin' that it came clear from Chicago and was bought by mail)—there's something almost sinful about such a hat. It's showy."

"But it's becoming," defended Charmian. "You can't deny it."

"Maybe 'tis. I ain't no special judge o' that; but don't you think her mouth's a mite too small to be real comfortable? As James Bennett used to say: 'It's not safe to trust a woman with a small mouth.' And she ain't got your nose, either."

"Charmian's got the Chadwick nose," said Grandma proudly. "It's a handsome nose, male or female, if I do say it."

"Dear me!" said Charmian, rubbing a thoughtful finger down the bridge of the feature under discussion. "I didn't know that noses possessed gender. But I'm glad it's handsome," she added as she turned away.

When she returned the two women ceased talking so abruptly that the girl felt sure she was the subject of their conversation. Miss Lizzie drew a deep breath, and proceeded to extricate her portly frame from the depths of the comfortable rocker.

"Well, I'm obliged," she said, reaching for the soda. "I don't know what I'd do without my neighbors. Some like livin' on a back road that ain't dusty; but I say, give me dust—and neighbors every time. I can't keep house without 'em."

"And she couldn't," agreed Grandma, when Miss Lizzie had closed the door behind her. "She's got no memory. None of the Bakers were extra strong in the upper story, as Father used to say; but she's a good soul and means well, which is almost better."

"Does she consider that I am bearing up cheerfully under my disappointment?" asked Charmian with a smile.

"She didn't say," admitted Grandma, "but she's terribly mad at Sarah Bennett though they've been friends since they were girls. The airs that Sarah put on last night when Jim came to the social with that girl, were almost unbearable—according to Lizzie. She said that when she saw you sitting beside the minister's wife, just like a settled down old maid, her blood boiled in her veins."

Charmian sank down in the chair Miss Lizzie had just vacated, and laughed till the tears came.

"Poor dear old soul!" she said at last. "I didn't realize that I had such a champion. But I didn't feel the least bit like an old maid, Grandma; and as for Jim, he didn't look real happy, it seemed to me."

"And he'd better not be!" retorted Grandma with indignation. "He ought to be ashamed, if you ask me, running after a girl like that, and leaving you to sit with Mrs. Merry, for all the world as if you were a stranger!"

"But I love Mrs. Merry," assured Charmian. "I wanted to sit with her. Come, Grandma! you mustn't be unreasonable. Jim isn't the only boy in town."

"Maybe not," admitted Grandma grudgingly, "but since George K's boys have left, he's the most likely. And hasn't he always beamed you out before?" she asked, as if that settled it.

Charmian laughed. "Perhaps for that very reason he yearns for some variety. Forget it, Grandma. It's the least of my troubles. Now listen. I've something far more important to talk about. You'd never in the wide world guess what I've done. If only I succeed in making a good impression, I've—I've taken a boarder!"

CHAPTER III.

For once Grandma forgot the passing. Her eyes left the window to rest upon her granddaughter in amazement and consternation.

Charmian Davis, have you taken leave of your senses? Who'd get her dinner? She'd be a nuisance. I won't have her!"

"He isn't a she," responded Charmian, enjoying to the full the old lady's indignation. "Perhaps he will be a nuisance, but if his boarding here will help the doctor—"

"What's Edward Howe got to do with it?" interrupted Grandma, giving a swift survey to the street to be sure that nothing of importance was going on.

"Everything," replied Charmian, and proceeded to repeat most of what the old man had told her.

"Well," Grandma commented, leaning back in her chair and drawing a deep breath, "it—it beats the Dutch! How old is he, dearie? I hope he's old enough to know his business."

"The doctor called him a boy; but he knows his business, you may be sure, or he wouldn't trust us to him."

"Trust us to him!" echoed Grandma indignantly. "Do you suppose I'd let him lay a hand on me? Well, it'll be a great change for us, Charmian. It's all of seventeen years since we've had a man in the house. I hope he's not untidy. Sometimes menfolks make a terrible lot of work around a place. And they eat hearty. You'll have to get him something hot for supper. Shall we give him the east chamber?" (To Be continued.)

High Price To Pay
Little Mary, who had fallen ill, begged for a kitten.

It was found that an operation was necessary for the child's "cure" and that she must go to the hospital. Her mother promised that if she were very brave she would have the very finest kitten to be found.

Commercializing the Radio

People Get Tired Of Program Consisting of Advertisements

The fact is being widely deplored that undue commercial use is being made of the radio. Under the pretence of giving a concert on the air—an hour of radio—most of the time is taken up by announcements and propaganda of all kinds. Listeners in bear with abuses of this kind for a certain time in the hope that, finally, they will hear something that is enjoyable and instructive; but in many instances they indignantly shut off the radio. In these circumstances the Government of the Province of Quebec is to be heartily congratulated upon its initiative which assures radio fans one hour of music and instruction on two evenings of the week.

DO NOT LET YOUR BABY SUFFER

Baby's Own Tablets Are Just the Help He Needs

At the cost of a few cents every mother can add to her own happiness and to her children's safety, for, while the cost of Baby's Own Tablets is small the value of these Tablets to every home where there are little ones is exceedingly great.

What mother does not suffer when her little ones are suffering—when they are undergoing the tortures of the teething period; the agonies of constipation and indigestion, or the miseries brought on by colds or simple fevers? What mother can sleep when her child does not sleep? She can banish these troubles, however, and in banishing them she is making a happy household, for the happy child makes everyone else happy.

To banish childhood suffering Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in the home. They are recognized the world over as an absolutely safe and efficient remedy for little ones. They are a mild but thorough laxative and through their action on the stomach and bowels never fail to banish any of the minor ills of little ones. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Fastest Motor In World

Fastest motor in the world, the Golden Arrow, in which Sir Henry Segrave went 231 miles an hour, was owned by Mr. H. S. Horne, London, who recently went bankrupt. Sir Charles Wakefield, the oil magnate, bought it and gave it to the South Kensington Museum. The car cost originally between $50,000 and $60,000.

Persistent Asthma. A most distressing characteristic of this debilitating disease, is the persistence with which recurring attacks come to sap away strength and leave the sufferer in a state of almost continual exhaustion. No wiser precaution can be taken than that of keeping at hand a supply of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, famous as the most potent remedy for eradicating the disease from the tender air passages.

Speedy Radio Program

Travelled 20,000 Miles In About One-Eighth Of Second

A radio program travelled approximately 20,000 miles in about one-eighth of a second.

The program was broadcast from W2XAF, the experimental short wave station of the General Electric Company, Schenectady, N.J., picked up by VK2ME a short wave station in Sydney, Australia, and rebroadcast back to Schenectady, where it was picked up and transferred to WGY the General Electric Company's regular station, and again rebroadcast.

Company engineers said it was the first time to their knowledge such a feat had been performed over so great a distance.

All mothers can put away anxiety regarding their suffering children when they have Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator to give relief. Its effects are sure and lasting.

Couldn't Be Done

A buxom farm lass was, upon one occasion, called as a witness in a case in a Yorkshire county court. The girl happened to mention that her sweetheart knew something about the matter. "Oh," said the judge, "then I think we had better call him to court!" The girl blushed furiously. "It won't be any good, sir," she protested. "Ah'm fair put to it to get him to court when we're alone, an Ah'm sure he won't do it before all you gentlemen!"

Little Helps For This Week

"Who hath despised the day of small things?"—Zechariah iv. 10.

Free men freely work, Whoever fears God, fears to sit at ease.

Let us be content in work To do the thing we can, and not presume To fret because it's little.

—Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

Begin with small things. You cannot enter the presence of another human being without finding there more to do than you or I, or any soul, will ever learn to do perfectly before we die. Let us be content to do little, if God sets us at little tasks. It is but pride and self-will which says, "Give me something huge to fight, and I should enjoy that; but why make me sweep the dust?"

Sounds Uncomfortable

A banquet, we believe, is a showy sort of meal where the speaker eats a lot of food he doesn't want and then proceeds to talk about something he doesn't understand to a crowd of people who don't care to hear him.

Persian Balm is a sheer delight to use. Cools and relieves irritations caused by weather conditions. Imparts a rare charm and beauty to the complexion. Fragrant and velvety smooth. Never leaves a vestige of stickiness. Swiftly absorbed by the tissues and stimulates the skin. Persian Balm is the peerless toilet requisite. Every woman will appreciate the subtly distinctive charm achieved by the use of this magical lotion.

The Trade Mark

Two Irish private soldiers, walking along one of the main thoroughfares in Glasgow, observed the notice, in gigantic type, in a shop window, "Butter! Butter!! Butter!!! "Pat," said Mike, "what is the meaning of them big strokes after the words?" "Och, ye ignoramus!" said Pat. "Sure, they are meant for shillelaghs to show it's rale Irish butter!"

"DEACON SLIPS" PLAYS TO FAIR CROWD FRIDAY

The comedy-drama "Deacon Slips," which was staged in the Elks hall on Friday night last by the Hesketh Community Players, was attended by a fair crowd with conditions such as they are throughout the district this year. The scene, which was the sitting room of a farm house in one of the western states, was the same throughout the three acts and the plot of the story hinged on the possibilities of oil on this farm, the knowledge of which was known only by the villain and his associates, and it was their desire to buy the farm from the owner, a young lady, whom they were forcing to come to terms under false pretences. In the end the villain was discovered and everything turned out as it should.

The cast, represented as follows, all played their parts exceptionally well and they deserve great credit for the performance on Friday night last. Deacon Slips, a retired farmer from the southern states and an old friend of Miss Greendale's father, Geo. Sterling. Freta Slips, the deacon's daughter, Mrs. Sterling. Leslie Jerksome, the farm boy, Geo. Appleyard. Mr. Ringling, the villain, Ross Thorburn. Harold Ringling, the villain's son, R. Appleyard. Paul Hearman, Mildred Greendale's lover, Gordon Price. Eunice Moredough, Mildred Greendale's aunt and former sweetheart of the deacon, Mrs. Hunter. Mildred Greendale, owner of the farm, Miss Tobin. Mr. Brown, the lawyer, A. G. Vooys. Following the play a dance was held in the hall and a fair crowd stayed for this event.

RELIEF WORK TO START IN DISTRICT IMMEDIATELY

Relief road work will commence this week on the Twin Hills road, when the excavation of the new cut-off on this section of the Drumheller-Calgary road will be started and the road up to Twin Hills, according to surveyed route, straightened out. Chris Sorenson, one of the farmers in this particular district, will be the foreman in charge of the work which will be carried on under the supervision of Provincial Government engineers.

The rate of pay will be 25c an hour with married men being given eight hours work each day and single men four hours a day. Even at this low rate it is estimated that the cost of the work to be undertaken will be far in excess of the normal cost, consequently the Town of Drumheller, the Village of Newcastle, M.D. Michichi and M.D. Carbon will be called upon to pay the difference between the estimated cost and the emergency cost. Arrangements concerning payment for work done will be in the hands of a special committee composed of representatives of the various municipalities affected, but it is understood that single men will be paid each day and married men will receive their money at the week-end.

An interesting game of hockey was played at the local rink last Saturday afternoon between the C.G.I.T. and the Gamble girls. The game was an exciting one, more so in view of the fact that there was considerable water on the ice, and after 15 minutes of overtime the score was 4-3 in favor of the Carbon girls.

The Knee Hill creek at Carbon commenced to flow Sunday night and with the mild weather the past couple of days the water has risen to within four feet of the swing bridge. The water is again receding.
